

...march 1, 1985...

newspapers – periodicals and magazines wrap their photos into typeset minds – capturing the eyes of multitudes to punctuate the air in capitals while weaving histories that never were into fakes that will not disappear –

it's time to close encyclopaedias and throw out newspapers and magazines not knowing what is fake and what is gold – it's time transform finite consonants into thunder vowels of heart and dreams flying beyond archaic truths we're told – we'll gather in the truth of future hearts that need no politicians and no papers begging our compliance to become lesser beings – we shall become more by weaving stars into our inner eyes inciting spirit selves to soar again.
