

...january 14, 1986...

into my own i come –
recycled hair
and matching fingerprints
to mark another
passage of the years –

into my own i tip
a long neck longer –
skin carved more carefully around the eyes –
a strange heart beating
chameleon disguise –

recycled
and re-costumed
to explode in dances
that i could not
dance before.
