

...september 15, 2009...

hazy shadows flicker through
lily corners of the pond
with iridescent dragonflies startling an in-between –

irises and water reeds throw reflections back to me lacing ghosts of yesterday into an effervescent mist –

sunshine whispers in and out of goldfish skies and hummingbirds – and you are with me once again swimming this forever-ness.
