

...january 20, 2009...

out of – into a reaching fog of lampposts fuzzed to vapor moons – breathing in a blue-black haze with dewdrop trees diffused in light –

it is as if i coalesce out of these mists of nothingness to create this fleeting day in minute focused clarity –

and when the dusk gathers again into the deep of misted cloud
i am slowly reabsorbed
back into realms of the unknown.
