

...january 12, 2009...

they talked about the tuesday on a wednesday afternoon forgetting it was thursday and that monday came too soon – and speeding into friday for a saturday of plans they slept through sunday morning until monday came around – but when they reached the tuesday on an afternoon of snow and realized the day was not the one they had arranged – they grew in conversations gambling with sun

to re-circumambulate
the week's curriculum.
