

A photograph of a wooden bench by a lake. The bench is made of weathered wood and is positioned on a bank covered with fallen yellow and brown leaves. In the background, there is a body of water with ripples, and several weeping willow trees with long, thin, yellowish-brown branches hanging down towards the water. The scene is captured in a soft, natural light, suggesting an autumn or early winter setting.

...january 18, 2010...

gold traveled seas
an ancient sun –
an endless beach
to wrap my skin
inside a spaceless
wandering
suspending me
outside of time –

inside the sun
beyond the sand
i dream and dream
some other-where –
drifting into
that breathless air
until i am
already there.
