hello friend of new and old always edging memory
returning now like prodigal from tales of the parable –

hello friend of sister fame from dynasties we grew beyond – welcome to this sudden here eclipsing vanished yesteryears –

when all was once we grew in names that spiraled new life patterns til now – at last – through wandering our pathways overlap again.
