

...january 24, 2010...

hello goodbye goodbye hello between among around below into outside beyond above the shifting clouds we call ourselves - hello hello goodbye goodbye - faces shift within the mist from now to here and there to then through vapour grey imaginings - goodbye goodbye hello hello as we slip deeper through the fog - an instant clear - an instant blurred swirling into mists again - goodbye hello hello goodbye from here to there and further in shifting towards a strange somewhere we never dared to dream before.
