

...march 2, 2010...

lagoon of heron duck and swan turtle squirrel and raccoon centering and drawing in enchantments of another world –

*songbirds dart from leaf to branch of bulrushes and evergreens
the here-of-now and now of there mingles damp with ocean brine –*

seagull logs and green legged coots – yellow irises of spring – songbirds singing timeless time to mirror waters rippling –

the glassy lost of lost lagoon swells and whispers back again as if some god or goddess dropped eternity into our laps.
