

...july 12, 2013...

*hello self of grass and earth –
of sky and tree and passages – self of ocean sweeping shores and sands and seagull choruses –*

hello self of flowers and sun and strange exotic memories wandering homes and paths that crisscross my realities –

hello selves of everywhere – nice to meet you once again – thank you all for being here to meet the person i've become.
