

...may 15, 2013...

the hillsides rise in castles like ancient courtiers with kings and queens and princesses presiding mountain realms – the clouds are shaping passage ways for horses born to wings bearing knights though hurricanes of windswept destinies – and we – the earthbound travellers absorb these witching storms with rainbow arches promising an unimagined dawn.
