

...november 28, 2013...

today we met – a friend and i with amber in our beers and conversations of the mind slipping beneath words – we spun a magic ambience reweaving fairy tales as kings and queens and warlocks who were our other selves – then we became those kingdoms shaping our own demise as god engendered puppeteers reshaping histories.
