

...november 20, 2015 ...

did you see me? did you see me?
did you see me disappear?
a sudden dashing water splash that sent the ripples spiralling?

and just before the water splattered into light refracted sprays my ethereal self was leaping up towards the downwards dive -

there i am - a water nymph looking up to seagull skies - with seaweed hair spreading on waves like water-dancing butterflies.
