

...december 24, 2015...

i'm sipping coffee - window wise watching craziness outside - crowded streets - umbrella thick in credit cards and christmas glitz - elaborate trees in angel wings with candy canes of melting rain - bags and bustle elegance all resonating shopping bliss - memories of this and that ricochet through window panes of packaged dolls and firetrucks bowing to computer nuts - i sit and watch foreverness while past and future overlap breathing in a coffee steam of magical imaginings.
