

...february 2, 2015...

some deep where inside my heart i know that i am grander – larger – more magnificent than this mirror-self i fantasize –

i balance on a nameless precipice plunging forgotten trails of a mind that knows a me outside of space and time – i reach into the far of some strange where to find a world of crystal energy with rainbow lights embracing from within – and there i find that i am magnified in the refractions of ten thousand lives all echoing those dreams i almost dreamed –

then suddenly i'm back to me again yet multiplied in dreams – ten thousand times.
