

...november 19, 2018...

i'll fill an awesome bag she said with cucumbers and cabbages – with oranges apples blueberries – peanut butter cheese and bread –

so off she went with bag in hand checking shops and shops and shops filling her bag with awesomeness in things that never seemed to stop –

with party shirts and necklaces with shoes and scarves and chocolate bars with newspapers and magazines and two exotic summer scarves –

you never know you never know you never really know she said just when i'll need this awesomeness then stashed the lot beneath her bed
