

...may 19, 2018...

inside this gleaming moment
i catch an inside pause that is so wise no one can see the wisdom that it holds –

and though – so very weary of all life's challenges – i become the focus of this moment's ambience –

the sun sinks into mountains where breezes gather clouds as i am breathed into – beyond – all that i ever was.
