

...april 13, 2023...

*a letter in the mail today
from a friend of far-away making far-away seem near like conversations in my ear –*

i read it once and put it down – now i read it once again savouring the flow of words whispering my inside mind –

it is as if a part of you weaves the ink that threads this page as i already shape and weave the page that waits my answering.
