

...december 18, 2023...

*a quiet moment in the sun – clouds shifting through the trees –
i sit the warm with closing eyes melting into dream –*

*a week ago – in mexico –
i walked the cobbled streets and watched an ocean rolling shores along the malécon –*

*now i am the same – yet not with memories and more wrapped into a stretching hour
i never knew before.*
