*all of the you's
you see in me
and all the i's i see in you contain the all of everything that each of us conceive –* backwards forwards up and down and all degrees of in between we are creators thought by word spiraling both out and in – earth is toroidal – round and flat – holographically correct reflecting proofs the prover proves dismissing all that do not fit –

each choice of yours – each choice of mine changes with each thought we think – as we move from here to there creating biospheres of belief –

from words in words to worlds in worlds we're fractals in the all-that-is spiraling through frequencies out of the void – into the now.
