are you a you?
or are you thou?
why does our language
misconstrue
the truth of me
and truth of you
with its curious
in-betweens?

is there a thee
that is not me?
is there a me
that is not you?
how do we
differentiate
the truth between
those two estates?

if i am you
and you are me
how is it that
we're so confused?
after all –
we both must be essential to the world view.
