

...june 21, 2023...

friends of friends
and friends in friends
spiral through my thoughts
gathering my memories
in photographic loops –

here the childhood family that shaped my consciousness each of us a sentient part of one gigantic soul –

memories of you and you are living in me now –
as i leave parts of me with you in every sweet goodbye –

memories of friends and friends dance inside my heart
walking with me to the beach to watch the solstice set –

red-gold clouds surround a sun that sinks into the west –
while i am sharing –
friends through friends –
in earth's great wonderment.
