the god that is the all-that-is wraps me on this sunshine beach – reminding me that the god-within emerges from the inside-out to sing me back into the belief of rainbow skies and endless tides – the all is us reflects us out and back into the lives we live to learn to love from inside-out then outside-in and out again as stars and sun and moon and winds reflect the universe within.
