you see me –
i see you –
what do you see?
what do i see?

rich brown eyes with golden glints
i see a rich intelligence – you see me – i see you smile
a smile that feathers through my soul –

i feel the quiet in your gaze in echoes of magnificence
as i sent out a thousand prayers honouring your inner depths –

i dream and pray a future free where you re-find your distant kin and thanking you for gifting me this moment of your company –

you see me
and i see you –
what do you see
when you see me?
